How to use the Electronic Product Selector

To navigate through this CD Rom, simply click on the document you wish to view from the selection opposite. Within each document you will find the following icons:

Home Button

Click here to return to the Homepage of this PDF CD Browser. You'll be able to navigate to all PDFs from this page.

Index Button

Click here to return to the index of the catalogue that you are currently browsing. Not all PDFs require indexing and therefore an Index button may not be present.

WWW Button

Click here to visit our website. From here you can order products online and keep up-to-date with the very latest developments.

You can use the buttons on each index page to jump to the various sections within a document. Then use the thumbnails located on the left hand side of each document to navigate through each page.
